The Online Home of Temple Football

On April 25, 2014, Temple announced the launch of a new website, www.TUDiamonds.com, that serves as a one-stop hub for all of the Temple Owls Football social media accounts. The site was designed by JumpForward.

At TUDiamonds.com, the online home of Temple Football, Cherry & White fans are able to easily access the Twitter (@Temple_FB), Facebook (TempleOwlsFootball), Instagram (Temple_FB), and OwlsTV accounts. The twitter page comes with a directory of current TU coaches and players, and popular former Owls, so you can keep up with your favorites at all times.

Additional features include a digital countdown to the Owls next game, a photo gallery, and hashtag gallery so that when you hashtag #WeTheT from TU events, your photos can be displayed on the site.

Matt RHULE

Head Coach
Penn State '97

8th Season at Temple (2nd as Head Coach)

In December 17, 2012, Matt Rhule returned to North Broad Street to take the helm as head coach of the Temple Owls. Following six seasons as one of Al Golden's top assistants, he joined the New York Giants as the assistant offensive line coach in 2012. He is now in his second year as the 26th Owls head coach and eighth on the Temple campus.

Prior to the start of his first season in charge he offered that his squad would produce an exciting brand of football and they would improve as the season progressed. Rhule delivered on those promises as the 2013 Owls produced nearly 400 yards per game of offense (the second best total in school history). Despite an 0-6 start to the season, the troups never surrendered and the team never trailed at the start of the fourth quarter in the second half of the season. The mission in the 2014 offseason was to learn how to finish out games.

The State College, PA, native, a former player at Penn State, has 16 years of collegiate coaching experience, including seven seasons at Temple, and six bowl games -- two with the Owls -- on his resume.

Rhule joined the Giants in the spring of 2012. He worked closely with Pat Flaherty, who has been the offensive line coach since 2004. They finished the 2012 campaign at 9-7, second in the NFC East, and averaged 355 yards of offense per game. Four New York players, including guard Chris Snee, were selected to the Pro Bowl.

During his previous tenure at Temple, Rhule's role changed several times. In spring 2012, he was promoted to co-offensive coordinator after serving as the assistant offensive coordinator and tight ends coach as well as the recruiting coordinator under Steve Addazio in 2011. Temple's 2012 recruiting class was ranked #1 in the Mid-American Conference and helped lay the foundation for the program's transition to the Big East Conference.

Under Al Golden, Rhule was promoted to offensive coordinator in the spring of 2008. He also coached the TU quarterbacks. He coached the defensive line in 2006 and served as the quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator during the 2006 and 2007 seasons. For three consecutive years, Temple's recruiting class was ranked #1 in the MAC [2006, 2007, 2008].

In 2011, the Owls went 9-4 and played in the fourth bowl game in school history, the Gildan New Mexico Bowl, where they crushed Wyoming, 37-15 – Temple's first post-season victory since the 1979 Garden State Bowl. Rhule mentored two-time first-team All-MAC selection TE Evan Rodriguez. For the second time in Rhule's tenure, the Owls set the Temple single-season rushing yardage record and rushing touchdowns records behind the explosive efforts of All-MAC junior running backs Bernard Pierce and Matt Brown.

In 2010, Rhule guided the offense to the largest margin of victory in a MAC game. Helping the team to an 8-4 regular-season record, the Owls recorded back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1978-79, including their first win over a BCS team. The Owls recorded the largest margin of victory (42 points) in a MAC game against Buffalo. A school record six offensive players earned All-MAC honors, including repeat first-team honorees OL Colin Madison, OL Darius Morris, and RB Bernard Pierce as well as first-time honoree TE Evan Rodriguez.

In 2009, Rhule's offense helped TU win a single-season record nine consecutive games en route to a 9-4 overall record and first-place tie in the MAC East. Under Rhule's guidance, the Owls set the Temple single-season rushing yardage record. A school record five offensive players were named All-MAC, including three on the first team. All-American Bernard Pierce rushed his way into the Temple record book, re-writing all records for a rookie en route to 2009 MAC Freshman of the Year honors.

In 2008, Rhule took the reins as offensive coordinator, helping the Owls to their most wins in nearly two decades. The Owls out-scored their opponents for the season for the first time since 1990. Rhule coached All-MAC honorees C Alex Derenthal and school record holder WR Bruce Francis, while QB Adam DiMichele set the school record for passing touchdowns with six in the 55-52 win over Eastern Michigan. WR Bruce Francis set the school records for career receiving TDs (23) and consecutive games with a reception (38).

Rhule arrived in Owl Country after spending four seasons as an assistant coach at Western Carolina, including three as assistant head coach.

From 2002 to 2005, Rhule was an assistant at Western Carolina under head coach Kent Briggs, serving as assistant head coach during his last three seasons. In 2005, he was offensive line coach and run game coordinator after directing the linebackers his first three years. Rhule was special teams coordinator during his tenure in Cullowhee (NC). In 2005, the Catamounts led Division I-AA in kickoff returns, averaging 27.44 yards per return. Sophomore Mike Malone earned first team All-Southern Conference honors with a 31.29 yards per kickoff return average, ranking second nationally. Two offensive linemen and the team's punter captured second team all-league accolades.

In 2004, WCU ranked 12th nationally in total defense and 15th in pass defense, largely due to the production of Rhule's linebacker corps. The team's top five tacklers were linebackers in its eight man front scheme. In 2003, the Catamounts led the SoCon in rush defense for the first time in school history.

Rhule arrived at Western Carolina after serving as assistant defensive line coach at UCLA in 2001. He assisted in coaching five Bruins that earned All PAC-10 honors as the team posted a 7-4 record under head coach Bob Toledo.

From 1999 to 2000, Rhule served as an assistant coach at Mid-American Conference member Buffalo, directing the Bulls defensive line in 2000 and working as assistant defensive line coach in 1999. In 2000, the team's sack total increased from 12 to 27 utilizing a 3-4 alignment. Buffalo also earned its first two Division I-A victories that season.

Rhule began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Penn State in the spring of 1998 before working at Albright College in Reading, PA for the 1998 season. At Albright, he coached the linebackers in a 4-3 scheme and recruited western and central Pennsylvania.

Rhule played four seasons at linebacker with the Nittany Lions under Joe Paterno. A three-time Penn State Scholar-Athlete, he earned Academic All-Big Ten honors in 1997. He received his undergraduate degree in political science before earning his master's degree in educational psychology from Buffalo in 2003.

Born January 31, 1975, he spent his childhood in New York City before moving to State College, PA, as a teenager.

He is married to the former Julie Nibert. The couple has a son, Bryant (9), and a daughter, Vivienne (1).

What They're Saying About Matt Rhule . . .

"Matt is a good, young coach. He has very good command, and is thorough and detailed in his assignments and with personnel. He has an outstanding background in the game, and the players like and respect him. He will be a great representative for Temple University and leader of that football program."
– Tom Coughlin, New York Giants head coach

"From the minute that he stepped foot here and became our assistant, you could tell he was a guy that was passionate about football. He loves the games; he loves being around it. He's a guy who brings that energy each and every day for us in the offensive line room. He not only looks at us up front, but he's able to read things with linebackers and coverage's that actually make an influence on what happens with us up front. Not a lot of guys can do that. Number one, he brings a lot of energy; number two, there's not a single thing that's left undone. He's detail-oriented and every single person in the room knows exactly what they have to do regardless of what situation they're in. For him to be a head coach, he's a young energetic guy who's passionate about the game. He loves the game, and most importantly, aside from all of his knowledge and what he brings to the game, he's a great guy. He's a great man, he's a father and he's a character guy who's going to be able to really help young men become men."
– OT David Diehl, New York Giants

"What a great day for Matt and Julie Rhule and the Temple Owls' Family! Coach Rhule was on the front line of the transformation that lead to three straight 8+ winning seasons, two bowl games, the longest winning streak in school history and the 2011 New Mexico Bowl championship. During that span, Matt oversaw an offense that lead the MAC in several statistical categories and produced the likes of NFL stars Evan Rodriguez, Rod Streeter, and Bernard Pierce. In addition, his professionalism and leadership were an essential part of the Owls' transformation to the BIG EAST Conference. Finally, Matt returns to North Broad Street with the added experience of having spent one season under the guidance of World Champion Head Coach Tom Coughlin. A Pennsylvania native, Matt will bring stability and continuity to the Temple Owls and will provide leadership and vision in the Delaware Valley for years to come."
– Al Golden, Miami Hurricanes head coach (former Temple head coach, 2006-10)

"It sounds like we've selected a coach who has knowledge of Temple, who is a good recruiter, and who has experience on both the collegiate and professional levels. He should spur the program on to greater heights."
– Wayne Hardin, former Temple head coach (1970-82)

"Matt Rhule knows the entire landscape at Temple. The players, present and past, trust him. I'm extremely happy for him and the Owls' family."
– Kevin Negandhi (Temple '97), ESPN SportsCenter

"Coach Rhule is very passionate and genuinely cares about the guys he coaches. I still have a good relationship with him, and he played a huge role in me being in the NFL today."
– DT Terrance Knighton (Temple '09), Denver Broncos

"Passion. Dedication. Toughness. These are the qualities that turned this program around a few years ago. Matt was a pillar of these qualities during our years together at Temple, and he was a huge part of the turnaround. I'm excited he's back. I'm excited for our program. Go Owls!"
– TE Steve Maneri (Temple '10), Tampa Bay Buccaneers

"I am very excited to learn that Temple has named Matt Rhule as the new head coach. I look forward to seeing this new era in Temple football under his watch. Temple players will all enjoy playing for him as I have. I'm glad to see him back, and I have a lot of respect for Coach Rhule."
– RB Bernard Pierce (Temple '12), Baltimore Ravens

"Matt Rhule is a great guy. He will be a good coach, someone who will make a big difference on a Temple program on the rise."
– DE Adrian Robinson (Temple '12), Washington Redskins

"Coach Rhule is a great coach who will connect with the players and bring the best out of players and coaches. This is a great move to take the program to the next level."
– WR Rod Streater (Temple '12), Oakland Raiders

"Coach Rhule is a great fit for Temple as a head coach. He knows the program and the area, as proven through his previous track record on the staff. I am truly happy to see him in that position and know his effort will never be questioned."
– OL Wayne Tribue (Temple '12), San Francisco 49ers

Ed FOLEY

Assistant Head Coach
Bucknell '89

7th Season at Temple

Ed Foley enters his seventh season with Temple University and second as the assistant head coach and tight ends coach after two seasons as the director of football operations. Previously he served as the Owls' recruiting coordinator and tight ends coach/assistant offensive line coach for three seasons.

In 2010, his 22nd season as a coach, Foley's tight ends and offensive line helped the team to an 8-4 regular-season record. The Owls recorded back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1978-79. A school record six offensive players earned All-MAC accolades, including first-team honorees TE Evan Rodriguez, OL Colin Madison, and OL Darius Morris. Madison and Morris became the first repeat first-team All-MAC recipients in school history.

In 2009, the tight ends and offensive line helped TU win a single-season record nine consecutive games en route to a 9-4 overall record and first-place tie in the MAC East. A school record five offensive players were named All-MAC, including senior TE Steve Maneri and four linemen. Juniors Colin Madison and Darius Morris earned First Team accolades.

In his first season with the Owls in 2008, Foley helped the Owls to their most wins in nearly two decades. The Owls outscored their opponents for the season for the first time since 1990. Foley also helped Temple bring in its fourth highly touted recruiting class during the Golden Era.

A native of Cherry Hill, NJ, Foley returned to the City of Brotherly Love after spending three seasons at Hofstra as the assistant head coach, offensive coordinator, and offensive line coach. The Pride offense blossomed under Foley in his first year as coordinator, increasing its yardage total from 269 to 388 yards per contest from the previous year. The Pride's scoring output also increased from 16.8 to 26.9 points per game. Foley also brought balance to the Pride attack as Hofstra's rushing total was its highest since 2000 (145 yards/game) and its passing attack netted 243 yards per contest. Charles Sullivan left as the all-time leader in receptions and yards after catching 86 balls for 991 yards under Foley's tutelage.

Prior to joining the Pride, Foley served seven years at Fordham University, including two seasons as head coach (2004, 2005). After a 5-6 record in 2004, a season in which the Rams dropped four games by a touchdown or less, Fordham slipped to a 2-9 mark in 2005. As Fordham's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach from 1999 through 2003, Foley helped rejuvenate a program that rose to the top of the Patriot League in 2002, when it won its first-ever league title with a 10-3 record. In 2003, the Rams compiled a 9-3 overall record and had 12 players named to the All-Patriot League Team, including six members of the offense, four of whom were named to the first team.

Under Foley's guidance, the Fordham offense set numerous team and individual records. The Rams set a team record for most rushing yards in a season in 2003, gaining 1,657 yards, while also setting a school record for most pass completions in a season with 255. In 2002, Fordham led the Patriot League in passing offense and scoring offense, while finishing second in total offense and setting a team record for most points in a season. In addition to winning the Patriot League title that season, the Rams advanced to the NCAA I-AA Playoffs, where they defeated Northeastern University in the first round.

In 2001, Foley helped the Fordham offense develop its first 1,000-yard rusher on the NCAA Division I-AA level, as well as the first-ever 1,000-yard receiver in Fordham's history. The Rams had the second-ranked passing offense in the Patriot League in 2001 as well as the second-best scoring offense. In 2000, Foley's offense established a running game that generated 1,635 yards (an average of 148.6 per game), the most for a Fordham team on the I-AA level until the 2003 team gained 1,657.

Foley arrived at Fordham after spending the 1998 season as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Jacksonville University, which sponsored a football team that year for the first time in the school's history. Foley helped lead the Dolphins to a 4-5 record during their inaugural season, as the offense scored 271 points in nine games (30.1 ppg). The Dolphin attack averaged 380 yards per game, a perfectly balanced 190 yards rushing and passing per game.

Foley also served as an assistant coach at the University of Pennsylvania from 1991 to 1993, and again from 1995 to 1997, spending the 1994 season as an assistant at Williams College. At Penn, Foley coached the tight ends and tackles for five years and helped the Quakers to a perfect 10-0 record in 1993, when they also won the Ivy League Championship. Prior to his stint at Penn, Foley served as the offensive line coach at the State University of New York (SUNY) at Albany for two years.

Foley was a three-year starter at Bucknell University, playing offensive guard for one season and center for two. During his junior year, he was named the team's top lineman, and he served as a captain during his senior year. He earned a bachelor's degree in psychology from Bucknell in 1989 and a master's degree in educational psychology at SUNY Albany in 1991.

Foley and his wife Rebecca have two sons, Charlie (14) and Luke (7), and a daughter Sara (5). His brother Glenn was a seven-year NFL veteran quarterback, playing with the New York Jets and Seattle Seahawks from 1993 to 2000.

Marcus SATTERFIELD

Offensive Coordinator
East Tennessee State '99
2nd Season at Temple

Marcus Satterfield enters his second season as the offensive coordinator at Temple University.

In 2013, his first season, his troups amassed nearly 400 offensive yards per game - eclipsed only by the 1979 Owls team. As offensive coordinator and quarterback coach, Satterfield tutored true freshman P.J. Walker who threw for 2,084 yards and 20 touchdowns in just seven starts.

Satterfield spent the previous four seasons as offensive coordinator at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. He spent his first three years grooming one of the most talented quarterbacks UTC has ever seen into an NFL draft pick. Satterfield totally revamped Chattanooga's offense to focus on the next generation of Mocs. In 2012, UTC switched to a spread system. The Mocs finished the season ranked fifth in the SoCon in scoring (25.5 ppg) and eighth in total offense (349.8 ypg).

B.J. Coleman had an outstanding three-year career under Satterfield's tutelage. He was eventually picked in the seventh round of the NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers, graduating with a UTC record 52 touchdown passes.

The 2010 season saw UTC rank No. 11 in the nation with 4,730 yards of total offense, the third highest mark in school history. Chattanooga also ranked in the top 20 in the FCS with 31.5 points per game, the second highest total in school history. UTC ranked #8 in the nation in passing offense with 277 yards per game and was third in the FCS in third-down conversions at 48.7%. Five offensive players were named to the All-SoCon team, while receiver Joel Bradford was pegged Third-Team All-American by the Associated Press.

In 2009, Coleman and Blue Cooper made up one of the top pass-catch tandems in the country. Cooper was #6 in the nation with 84 receptions and went on to sign a free-agent contract with the Philadelphia Eagles.

Prior to coming to UTC, Satterfield was the offensive coordinator at UT Martin for three seasons. There he helped the Skyhawks win the 2006 Ohio Valley Conference championship and finish with the #1 ranked scoring offense in the OVC in 2008. He also led the 2007 squad to a #1 league ranking in total offense and points-per-game.

Satterfield worked at Richmond during the 2004 season. Satterfield left Richmond to coach the wide receivers at Western Carolina, alongside Matt Rhule, for two years before joining UT Martin's staff.

A Greenback, TN, native, Satterfield was a three-year letterman as a wide receiver and punter at East Tennessee State from 1995-98, earning his degree in history from ETSU in 1999. He also played point guard for Chattanooga State Community College during the 1994-95 season.

Satterfield is married to the former Sarah Houser. The couple has a daughter, Harper (7).

Phil SNOW

Defensive Coordinator
Cal State Hayward '78

2nd Season at Temple

Phil Snow, who has a wealth of experience in both the collegiate and professional coaching ranks, enters his second season at Temple University as the defensive coordinator.

He joined the Owls after three seasons as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Eastern Michigan University.

Under Snow's guidance, EMU ranked 38th nationally and third in the MAC in pass defense in 2012. The Eagles gave up just 212.75 yards per game. Senior LB Justin Cudworth and senior DE Andy Mulumba were second-team All-Mid-American Conference honorees.

Snow orchestrated a major turnaround during the 2011 campaign, ranking 35th nationally and third in the MAC in total defense. The Eagles gave up 350.33 yards per game, an improvement of 103.8 yards per contest. In 12 games, the Eagles' defense allowed just 292 points for a total of 24.3 points per game. The last EMU squad to accomplish the feat was the 1994 team which gave up 275 points through its 11 contests.

Snow joined the Eagles after four seasons as an assistant coach with the NFL's Detroit Lions as the linebackers coach (2005-08).

Prior to his NFL stint in Detroit, the 57-year-old Snow served as an assistant football coach at the University of Washington, UCLA, Arizona State University, the University of California, Boise State University, and Laney College.

A 1978 graduate of Cal-State Hayward, Snow began his coaching career on the high school level, coaching at Berkeley (CA) H.S. in 1976, and at his high school alma mater, Winters (CA) in 1977-78.

From there, Snow joined the Laney (CA) College football staff in 1979 as a defensive backs coach before taking over as the defensive coordinator in 1980 and 1981.

His next stop was Boise State University where he was an assistant coach from 1982-86. He was a defensive backs coach in his first season at Boise before becoming the defensive coordinator in 1983 and holding that position through the 1986 season. In addition, he was the top assistant to the head coach from 1984-86. His Boise State defense was ranked sixth in the nation in 1986.

From Boise, Snow became an assistant coach in charge of the defensive backs at the University of California from 1987-91. The 1990 and 1991 teams won the first back-to-back bowl games (Copper and Citrus) in school history. The 1991 team moved up as high as sixth in the weekly national rankings and played in the school's first New Year's Day bowl game in 33 years.

After his California experience, Snow became the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Arizona State University from 1992-2000 and saw the 1996 team play in the Rose Bowl, the 1997 team make the Sun Bowl, while the 1999 and 2000 squads played in the Aloha Bowl. Snow's 1996 ASU squad finished first in the conference in rush defense (98.0), pass defense (104.2) and total defense (306.2). It held Nebraska scoreless in one game and limited the opposition to under 10 points in five games total that season. The team finished the season ranked fourth in the nation in both polls.

His defensive units ranked among the top three in scoring defense in the PAC-10 in three of his last five seasons at ASU. In 2000, the Sun Devils ranked first in the nation in fumbles recovered and third in the country in number of turnovers created. The group was headlined by PAC -10 Defensive Player of the Year, Adam Archuleta, and conference Freshman of the Year, Terrell Suggs.

Snow left ASU to become the defensive coordinator for two seasons at UCLA, where he mentored head coach Matt Rhule during the 2001 season. The Bruin defense ranked first in the PAC -10 in total defense in Snow's first season. The unit also finished the season ranked second in the league in rushing defense and scoring defense. In addition, linebacker Robert Thomas, a first round selection by the Rams in the 2002 NFL draft, earned 2001 PAC -10 Conference Defensive Player of the Year honors. Kenyon Coleman was

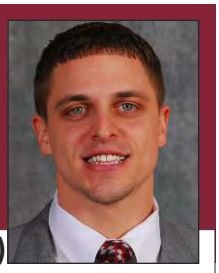
Adam DIMICHELE

Wide Receivers
Temple '09



2nd Season at Temple (1st as Wide Receivers Coach)

On February 6, 2014, former Owl quarterback Adam DiMichele was promoted to wide receivers coach. As such, he becomes the 19th Temple football player to become a full-time coach and the first in over 25 seasons. DiMichele spent the 2013 season at TU as a graduate assistant coach, working with the offense.

Since graduation, DiMichele has played professional football, including stints in the NFL and CFL. During the 2012 season, he played with the Philadelphia Soul of the Arena Football League.

Named the 2011 Southern Indoor Football League MVP, DiMichele led the Erie Explosion to a 9-3 record en route to a division title. He led the league in passing yards per game (270.6), team points per game (70.2), and total team offensive yards per game (260.0), while completing 235-of-427 passes (55%) for over 3,200 yards and a league-best 91 touchdowns to just seven interceptions.

DiMichele has also spent time with the Philadelphia Eagles (2009), the Calgary Stampeders (2009), and the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (2009).

Temple's team two-time MVP and team captain in 2007 and 2008, DiMichele finished his career ranked fourth in school history with 5,024 passing yards, adding 40 passing touchdowns and five rushing scores. During his first season as the Owls' signal caller (2006), DiMichele played in all 11 games with nine starts as a sophomore. In 2007, he started the first eight games before suffering a season-ending injury. In one of Temple's biggest comebacks in school history, DiMichele threw three fourth-quarter touchdowns to lead TU to a come-from-behind win at Akron during their first season of Mid-American Conference play. In 2008, he overcame intense rehabilitation and started nine games as a senior. In the 55-52 win over Eastern Michigan, DiMichele threw for a school record six touchdowns and passed for a career-high 370 yards. He broke school records for passing touchdowns in a game (six) and set a career-high for passing yards in game (370). His 370 yards marked his 10th 200-plus passing yardage games, which rank him third on the Temple's career list for 200-yard passers. It also marked his fourth 300-plus passing game, which tied the school record with Henry Burris.

DiMichele finished the 2008 season at 134-of-231 (58.0 percent) for 1,911 yards and 18 touchdowns in nine games also rushed 61 times for 91 yards and three touchdowns. His passing efficiency (148.02) ranked #19 in the final NCAA statistics. He finished his career with 5,024 passing yards which ranks fourth on Temple's all-time chart.

One of the most accomplished prep athletes in the history of Pennsylvania, DiMichele was a three-sport all-state selection as a senior in football, basketball and baseball at Sto-Rox High School. The McKees Rocks, PA, native had one of the best high school careers in the history of Pennsylvania as the Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League's all-time leading passer, which includes breaking records set by former NFL greats and Hall of Famers Joe Montana, Dan Marino, and Joe Namath. He earned first-team All-State honors in all three sports, and was cited as the state Player of the Year in both football and basketball.

DiMichele was inducted into the WPIAL Hall of Fame in 2011.

Prior to joining the Owls, DiMichele attended Okaloosa-Walton College (FL) for two years to play baseball. He was selected in the 38th round of the 2005 Major League Baseball Draft by the Toronto Blue Jays.

DiMichele received his degree in sport and recreation management from Temple in 2009. He is pursuing a master's degree in sports psychology.

One of seven children, DiMichele's younger brother Alex played football at Temple before transferring to Robert Morris. His brother Anthony played football at Holy Cross. Both brothers were I-AA All-Americans.

Tyree FOREMAN

Running Backs
Virginia '01

8th Season at Temple

Tyree Foreman, who has coached at Temple since 2007, is in his eighth season as the Owls' running backs coach.

Temple has a tradition of excellent running backs and, under Foreman, have continued that run.

In 2013, Kenneth Harper scored nine rushing touchdowns, the second best mark in the American Athletic Conference. Foreman also tutored Zaire Williams whose 533 rushing yards were the third highest total by a TU freshman.

In 2012, Foreman worked with All-American Montel Harris and BIG EAST Special Teams Player of the Year Matt Brown. The duo combined for a record-breaking day in the win at Army, rushing for school records of 534 yards, 22 rushing first downs, and nine touchdowns. In just one season at Temple, Harris earned first-team All-BIG EAST and Philadelphia Inquirer Performer of the Year accolades. He finished as the national leader with 27 career 100-yard rushing games while leading Temple and the BIG EAST in rushing with 1,054 yards and 12 touchdowns on 196 carries.

In 2011, Foreman guided the dynamic duo of juniors Bernard Pierce and Matt Brown to All-MAC honors while helping the Owls set the school records for rushing yards and rushing touchdowns in a season. Pierce became Temple's all-time leader in rushing touchdowns (53), total touchdowns (54), and points scored (324). He also set the season records for rushing TDs (27), total TDs (27), points scored (162), and 100-yard rushing games (9), while setting game records for rushing TDs in a game (5 at Maryland) and points scored (30 at Maryland).

Bernard Pierce, who decided to forego his senior season, was a third round draft selection by the Baltimore Ravens in 2012, the first of a school record three draftees and a school record class of 11 NFL signees.

In 2010, the running backs helped the team to an 8-4 regular-season record. The Owls recorded back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1978-79. Sophomore Bernard Pierce repeated as a first-team All-MAC honoree, while sophomore Matt Brown garnered second-team honors.

In 2009, Foreman's running game exploded, helping TU win a single-season record nine consecutive games en route to a 9-4 overall record and first-place tie in the MAC East. All-American Bernard Pierce rushed his way into the Temple record book, rewriting all records for a rookie en route to 2009 MAC Freshman of the Year and first-team All-MAC honors.

In 2008, Foreman helped the Owls to their most wins in nearly two decades. The Owls out-scored their opponents for the season for the first time since 1990. Foreman also coached true freshman Kee-ayre Griffin, who switched to running back midseason and went on to score a touchdown in his first five games. He led the Owls on the ground.

Foreman played his collegiate ball at Virginia, where former Temple coach Al Golden served as the Cavaliers' defensive coordinator during his senior season in 2001.

Foreman arrived at West Point in March 2004 and helped make an immediate impact on the Black Knights' rushing attack under head coach Bobby Ross. After finishing last in the nation in team rushing in 2003, Army concluded the 2004 campaign ranked 36th. The team also boasted the 13th leading rusher in the nation, Carlton Jones, who averaged 115.36 yards on the ground per game. Jones' production continued with Foreman's assistance in 2005, when he ranked 29th in the country in rushing with a 102.40 yards-per-game average.

In addition to coaching ball-carriers during his tenure at Army, Foreman also worked with special teams, assisting with punt, kickoff return and punt return, as well as field goal and extra point units. He recruited in Maryland, Washington DC, Virginia, Delaware, West Virginia, and Ohio for the Black Knights.

A three-year letterwinner in the backfield at Virginia from 1999 to 2001, Foreman rushed for 636 yards and 11 touchdowns during his career in Charlottesville, averaging 5.0 yards per carry. He started at both the fullback and tailback positions, closing his tenure with 34 receptions for 387 yards (11.4 avg.) and five receiving scores.

After departing Virginia, the Sandy Spring, MD, native, signed a rookie, free-agent contract with the San Diego Chargers in April, 2002. He was released at the end of training camp, but was signed to the Chicago practice squad in August 2002. He remained with the Bears throughout the season and was a teammate of former Temple signal caller Henry Burris. Foreman was allocated to NFL Europe during the spring of 2003 and spent the season as the starting fullback for the Barcelona Dragons.

Born November 6, 1979, Foreman earned a bachelor's degree in religious studies, with concentrations in Christianity and Buddhism, from Virginia in May 2001. He left professional football during the summer of 2003 and returned to the gridiron with his initial coaching assignment at West Point.

Foreman is married to the former Shakeya Currie. The couple has a daughter Cassidy (3).

Elijah ROBINSON

Defensive Line
Penn State '08

1st Season at Temple

Elijah Robinson begins his first season as defensive line coach for the Temple Owls.

Robinson, a Camden, NJ, native, comes home to Philadelphia after spending the past ten seasons at Penn State.

The former Nittany Lion defensive tackle transitioned into coaching when his playing career was cut short after suffering a neck injury during spring practice in 2007. Robinson graduated from Penn State in 2008 and joined the PSU staff as a graduate assistant coach one year later.

His primary responsibilities were assisting Larry Johnson in coaching the defensive line and preparing the offensive scout team from 2009. In 2011 he was promoted to a full time coaching position. Then in 2012 when Bill O'Brien took over as head coach, Robinson became Penn State's director of player development and NFL liaison. In that role he would organize scouting visits, orchestrate Pro Day, develop community service initiatives and serve as the football team's liaison with admissions, compliance, housing and academics.

Robinson earned All-State and All-South Jersey honors at Woodrow Wilson High School, leading the team to a 15-0 record and a state championship in 2002.

Mike SIRAVO

Linebackers
Boston College '98

3rd Season at Temple

Mike Siravo (pronounced SIR-ah-voh), who served as the Owls' linebackers coach and recruiting coach in 2006, returned to Temple University in 2013. He's now in his third season with the Owls and second season under Matt Rhule as the linebackers coach.

In 2013, Siravo's unit was led by MLB Nate L. Smith and WLB Tyler Matakevich, two of the Owls' bright young leaders. Matakevich earned American Athletic Conference All-America honors after leading the nation with 8.8 solo tackles per game.

Siravo re-joined the Owls after six seasons as defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Boston College. Siravo coached a secondary that helped three Boston College defenses rank within the nation's Top 10 in interceptions–2007 (second, 25), 2008 (first, 26) and 2010 (eighth, 20).

His 2010 secondary helped the team rank first in the country in rushing defense, eighth in interceptions (20), and 13th in total defense.

In 2008, Siravo coached the secondary that was a key part of a defense that ranked in the Top 10 nationally in seven different categories, including interceptions (t-first, 26), turnovers gained (second, 36), total defense (fifth, 286.14), red zone defense (sixth, .72), rush defense (seventh, 91.2), pass efficiency defense (seventh, 98.81), and first downs defense (sixth, 14.71).

In 2007, Siravo was a part of a Boston College staff that led the Eagles to an 11-3 record (the first Eagle team to win 11 games since 1940). The Eagles began the season 8-0 and were ranked No. 2 in the nation in both major polls. The team won the Atlantic Division of the ACC and went on to win an eighth consecutive bowl game. The Eagles finished 10th in the final AP poll, the program's best finish since the 1984 season.

Boston College ranked second in the country with 25 interceptions in 2007. The Eagle defense finished fourth in the ACC in pass defense efficiency and finished third in the league in total defense. Under Siravo's guidance, free safety Jamie Silva was a consensus All-America first-team honoree and a finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award given to the nation's top defensive back.

Siravo first stepped on North Broad Street in 2006 as Owls' linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator during Al Golden's first season. With Siravo's help, Temple had the top-ranked recruiting class in the Mid-American Conference in 2006, which produced five NFL players, including Steve Maneri and Andre Neblett.

Prior to joining the Temple staff in 2006, Siravo spent three seasons as linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at Columbia University (2003-05). At Columbia, Siravo developed a system to streamline the Lions' nationwide recruiting efforts. The linebacking corps was also considerably strengthened under his tutelage, with senior Chuck Britton earning All-Ivy accolades in 2004.

A Pawtucket, RI, native, Siravo joined the Eagles as a walk-on in 1995 and later earned a scholarship. The two-time letterwinner played linebacker under head coaches Dan Henning and Tom O'Brien. He earned Academic All-BIG EAST honors as a senior.

Siravo earned a bachelor's degree in history from Boston College in 1998. He also earned a master's degree from his alma mater in administrative studies of business in 2000.

Upon graduation, Siravo remained in Chestnut Hill and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for recruiting in 1998. The Eagles' February 1999 recruiting class was rated the best in school history, ranking 15th nationally according to expert Tom Lemming.

Siravo is married to the former Alison Cahill. They have two children— William (4), Evelyn (2), and newborn Henry Michael.

Chris WIESEHAN

Offensive Line
Wabash College '93

1st Season at Temple

Chris Wiesehan (pronounced WEEZ-uh-han) begins his first year as offensive line coach for the Temple Owls. During his 20-year coaching career, Wiesehan has coached nearly all the offensive positions, including five stops where he tutored offensive linemen.

Wiesehan comes to Philadelphia from the University of Hawaii where he began as an offensive line/run game coordinator. He helped coach freshman center Ben Clarke, who received all-Mountain West honorable mention honors and received the team's Offensive Player of the Year award. After coaching the offensive line in 2012, Wiesehan moved to running backs coach in 2013.

Wiesehan traveled to UH after serving as wide receivers coach for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League. In 2011, he helped Winnipeg to the Grey Cup, while in his first year he coached a group which boasted the second leading receiver in the league in Terrence Edwards, who finished with 1,372 yards and 12 touchdowns.

Wiesehan spent the 2009 season at UCLA as tight ends coach. The Bruins participated in the Eagle Bank Bowl and tight ends Ryan Moya and Logan Paulsen signed with the Cleveland Browns and Washington Redskins, respectively.

From 2007-08, Wiesehan was the offensive line coach at Syracuse. During his tenure, the Orange had their first 1,000-yard rusher in five seasons and two of his players were either drafted or signed by NFL teams. In addition, his offensive line cut the number of sacks allowed in half during his second year.

Prior to Syracuse, Wiesehan served as the offensive line coach at James Madison in 2006. In his only season, the Dukes won the Atlantic 10 South Division and led the conference in rushing. JMU also ranked 11th nationally in rushing and qualified for NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

Wiesehan gained NFL experience by working as an offensive assistant for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2005. Prior to that, he coached at Northern Arizona from 2001-04, where he spent two seasons each as wide receivers coach and offensive line coach. At NAU, the line allowed the fewest sacks in the Big Sky while helping produce a 1,000-yard rusher, and six linemen earned all-conference honors. NAU also won the 2003 Big Sky Championship and qualified for the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs in 2001 and '03.

Wiesehan spent two seasons at Buffalo (1999-2000), coaching the wide receivers and tight ends during his first season and offensive line in his second year.

In 1997 and '98, he was on staff at Notre Dame as the tight ends coach where the Irish participated in the Independence Bowl and the Gator Bowl. He spent the 1996 season coaching the tight ends at Purdue and mentored three-time Super Bowl champion New England Patriot Matt Light.

He began his coaching career at Fort Hays State from 1994-95 as the receivers coach, where he coached two All-Americans and four all-conference players. The school won the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference and participated in the Division II National Playoffs.

As a player, Wiesehan was a wide receiver and kick returner at Wabash College (1990-93). As a senior, he served as team captain and earned All-America honors while being named his team's Receiver of the Year for the third time.

Wiesehan and his wife, Renee, have one son, Colton.

GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACHES

Colin CLANCY

Graduate Asst. - Offense Line
Temple '09
2nd Season at Temple

Colin Clancy begins his second season at Temple University as a graduate assistant coach. In 2013 he worked with the Owls defense but will switch to offense this year.

During the 2012 football season, Clancy coached the wide receivers and returners at SUNY Cortland. The team finished with a 9-2 record, while winning the New Jersey Athletic Conference title and earning a berth into the NCAA Tournament. Under Clancy's tutelage, both starting receivers earned all-conference accolades.

Clancy started his business career working on Wall Street with research firm Sanford C. Bernstein, working in the private client division. He currently holds Series 7 and 63 licenses.

Clancy was a two-year letterwinner at Temple. As a true freshman in 2005, he appeared in five games as a reserve quarterback. He finished 10-of-19 for 121 yards and a touchdown, a 20-yard aerial to Brian Allbrooks against Toledo. As a senior, Clancy served as the holder on field goals.

A 2004 graduate of Stonington (CT) High School, Clancy was named to the 2002 Hartford Courant's All-State team. The three-year varsity starter set school career records with 39 touchdowns and 3,700 passing yards. He earned All-Eastern Connecticut Conference honors as a sophomore and junior. Also a 2001 New London Day All-Area selection and Honor Roll student, Clancy earned All-Conference accolades in baseball as a sophomore.

Following high school, Clancy played one season at St. Thomas More Prep before enrolling at Temple. He set a school record by throwing for 19 touchdowns and 1,340 yards to lead the team to a 7-1 record while earning All-New England Prep accolades.

Clancy received his degree in entrepreneurship from Temple in 2009. He was cited on the Athletic Director's Honor Roll and was the recipient of the 2008 Owl Club Academic Award for sporting the team's highest GPA. Clancy is pursuing a master's degree in adult and organizational development.

Evan COOPER

Graduate Asst. - Defense
Temple '09
2nd Season at Temple

Evan Cooper, Jr., begins his second season at Temple University as a graduate assistant coach, working with the defense.

He spent two seasons as the defensive backs coach at Westminster Academy in Ft. Lauderdale, FL, while working as a student advisor.

A four-year letterwinner for the Owls, Cooper played his first two seasons under Bobby Wallace. As a true freshman in 2005, he played in seven games. Under Al Golden, he moved into the starting line-up. As a senior in 2008, Cooper had 44 tackles, including 31 solos, three break-ups, and two forced fumbles. He earned the 2008 Carlos Diaz Award as the most improved player following his final season.

A 2005 graduate of American Heritage High School in Delray Beach, FL, Cooper was a Florida Sun Sentinel first-team All-County Small School honoree. As a senior, he led Palm County with 10 interceptions and had 53 tackles and recovered two fumbles. Cooper also showed big play ability by scoring two touchdowns on defense. A standout sprinter, he qualified for state finals in two events as a junior.

Cooper received his degree in sport and recreation management from Temple in 2009. He is pursuing a master's degree in sports psychology.

His father Evan Sr. starred at Michigan before playing defensive back and returning kickoffs for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1984-87.

Eric FARGO

Graduate Asst. - Defense
Temple '13
1st Season at Temple

Eric Fargo is in his first season as a graduate assistant coach at Temple University.

He has spent the past two years as a student assistant at Temple on the offensive side of the ball, where he helped instruct the offensive line and the wide receivers. Fargo also spent time as a member of the recruiting staff in 2011.

In 2013, under the guidance of then wide receiver coach Terry Smith, Fargo assisted in the development of a vastly improved wide receiver core that was highlighted by the emergence of Robby Anderson who caught 9 touchdowns, which was tied for second in the American Athletic Conference.

Fargo graduated from Souderton (PA) Area High School in 2008, where he played for well-respected head coach Ed Gallagher. He was a two-year letterman at the tight end and linebacker position. He then played linebacker for one year under coach Geno DeMarco at Geneva College during the 2008-2009 season.

He began his coaching career in 2010 tutoring tight ends and linebackers at his alma matter, Souderton Area High School.

Fargo received his degree in adult and organizational development from Temple in 2013. He is pursuing a master's degree from the College of Education.

Lonnie TEASLEY

Graduate Asst. - Offensive
Winston-Salem State '08
1st Season at Temple

Lonnie Teasley, a Willingboro, NJ, native is in his first season at Temple working with the offense as a graduate assistant. He will spend most of his time assisting offensive line coach Chris Wiesehan.

He joined the staff in February 2014, after a three-year stint at Delaware State. In 2013, he served as linebackers coach and assisted with special teams. Prior to that he worked the previous two seasons as a graduate assistant working primarily with the tight ends and in recruiting.

Teasley was a standout offensive lineman at Winston-Salem University (NC) under Delaware State's head coach Kermit Blount. Prior to enrolling at Winston-Salem State, Teasley was a New Jersey All-State lineman at Willingboro High School.

In 2008, he earned a bachelor's in liberal arts from Winston-Salem State. He was working on his master's in sports administration at DSU.

He has also served as a teacher and football coach at Brunswick High School in the state of Georgia.

He is married to the former Carma Tucker. The couple is expecting their first child this summer.

Jeremy Scott

Head Strength & Conditioning Coach
Lock Haven '96

2nd Season at Temple

Jeremy Scott, who has spent his career optimizing the performance of collegiate and professional athletes, enters his second season at Temple University as the head strength and conditioning coach for football.

Scott previously spent 14 seasons at Penn State as the speed development coach and assistant strength and conditioning coach for the football program. He was responsible for developing players' speed, reaction, agility, quickness and acceleration, as well as working on proper running mechanics and high-intensity strength training. His expertise was a valuable resource in lowering 40-yard sprint times and preparing players for the drills used in evaluation at the NFL combines.

In 2012, Scott worked with the varsity teams at Princeton University.

Scott was recognized for his achievements with his selection in 2011 for the prestigious title of Master of Strength and Conditioning Coach.

A 1996 graduate of Lock Haven University, Scott obtained his master's degree in health education from Penn State in 1999. He previously served as a graduate assistant with the Penn State strength and conditioning program from 1997-98 and performed an internship with the program in the summer of 1996. His work experience also includes designing and implementing a high-intensity strength training program for the United States Marine Corps Company B Body Bearers (1998), serving as the strength coach for the Penn State Boxing Club (1997-98) and as a personal trainer (1995).

Scott is married to the former Cory Beth Wickizer, and they have a daughter, Emma (8), and son, Evan (4).

Brandon Washington

Asst. Strength & Conditioning Coach
LSU '09

1st Season at Temple

Brandon Washington, who spent two seasons with the University of Alabama football team's strength and conditioning staff, begins his first season with Temple University.

Washington joined the Owls directly from Nicholls State University where he was the defensive line coach in 2013.

Prior to his stint at Nicholls State, he was the head strength and conditioning coach at Atlanta Sports Academy where he oversaw the progress of 150 athletes in four sports (football, basketball, baseball, and lacrosse). While there he also coached the defensive line. In his three years, he played an instrumental role in the football team's 40-6 record leading the defensive line to 123 sacks in that span. During his time in Atlanta, he also founded 10/90 Athletics and USAFootballclinic.com/Gridiron101, each designed as a youth football development program.

Washington began his coaching career in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, first at Central High and then at Alabama. At Alabama he was reunited with head coach Nick Saban who recruited Washington to Louisiana State in 2001.

At LSU, Washington was a four-year letterman and member of a class that collected a 54-11 record. The Tigers won two SEC Championships (2001, 2003) as well as the 2003 National Championship. While there he was coached and mentored by well-known college and NFL defensive line coaches such as Pete Jenkins (SEC/NFL), Karl Dunbar (NY Jets), Bo Davis (Alabama), Lance Thompson (Alabama) and Travis Jones (Seattle Seahawks).

During his coaching career, Washington has mentored the following NFL draft choices: Terrence Cody (Baltimore), Wallace Gilberry (Cincinnati), Brandon Deaderick (New England), Marcel Dareus (Buffalo), and Courtney Upshaw (Baltimore).

The Tuscaloosa, AL, native graduated with a degree in humanities and social sciences from LSU in 2011.

Shelton Gaffney

Asst. Strength & Conditioning Coach
Western Carolina '07

2nd Season at Temple

Shelton Gaffney, who spent three years with the University of Tennessee football team, begins his second season at Temple University as the assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Gaffney joined the Owls after two years as a strength and conditioning coach at Johnny Long's Training Academy in Knoxville, TN. He oversaw the development of football athletes as well as trained high school athletes and current professional athletes in various sports.

Prior to working at Johnny Long's Training Academy, Gaffney was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Tennessee from 2008-10. He worked with various sports, including football, track and field, basketball, baseball, and swimming and diving.

Gaffney started in the strength and conditioning profession in 2007 while at his alma mater, Western Carolina. While at Western, he served as an apprentice in the weight room and then went on to serve as an intern at Tennessee in the summer of 2007. That fall the Vols became the SEC East champions.

Gaffney was a four-year letter winner at Western Carolina University where he played linebacker for the Catamounts. He was a key contributor on defense as well as on special teams. Gaffney earned a bachelor's degree in sport management and exercise science in 2007.

He completed a master's degree in kinesiology and sport psychology from Tennessee in 2010. He is certified through USA Weightlifting and USA Track & Field.

Kevin Kroboth

Grad. Asst. - Strength & Conditioning
Temple '12

3rd Season at Temple

Kevin Kroboth begins his third season at Temple University as a graduate assistant coach working with strength and conditioning.

Kroboth began his playing career at Nazareth High School, playing quarterback and safety for the Blue Eagles. The team captain finished his prep career with 692 rushing yards and six touchdowns. A two-time All-Lehigh Valley Conference selection, Kroboth played in the McDonald's All-Star Classic.

A 2012 Temple graduate with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology, Kroboth was a member of two bowl teams with the Owls and a member of the school's all-time winningest Senior Class. A 2011 third-team All-Mid-American Conference honoree at safety, Kroboth started all 13 games as a senior, one of only nine Owls to start every game. He finished the 2011 season second in tackling with 76 stops, a team-best seven break-ups, and three interceptions. Kroboth played in the Casino Del Sol All-Star Game following his senior season. He was named the team's 2008 Special Teams MVP as a true freshman. The Nazareth, PA, native is pursuing a master's degree in sports psychology.

Al BELLAMY
Director of Athletic Training
Michigan State '84

2nd Season at Temple

Al Bellamy is now in his second season as Temple Athletics' director of athletic training.

He oversees all 19 of Temple's intercollegiate sports, while working directly with the football team, and managing the sports medicine staff. He brings 25 years of NFL athletic training experience to Temple, including 12 seasons with the Detroit Lions.

With Detroit, Bellamy helped manage the team's athletic training staff and worked closely with the team's physicians.

Bellamy arrived in Detroit following 13 years as assistant trainer with the Washington Redskins. He began working with the Redskins in 1988 and was a member of the team's medical staff when Washington won Super Bowl XXVI. In 2009, Bellamy also served on the Gatorade Advisory Board.

Prior to joining the Redskins, he served a two-year stint as an assistant athletic trainer with the University of Miami (FL) football team (1986-87). During this span, he worked with the Hurricanes' program that claimed the 1987 National Championship and included former Lions' safety Bennie Blades and wide receiver Brett Perriman. That assignment was his first full-time job and came after he had earned his master's degree in physical education (emphasis on sports medicine) from Syracuse.

Before obtaining his master's from Syracuse, Bellamy attended Michigan State as an undergraduate and received his bachelor's degree in health education in 1984. While at MSU, he began working in the NFL when he served training camp internships with both the St. Louis Cardinals and San Francisco 49ers.

Prior to attending Michigan State, Bellamy attended Archbishop John Carroll High School in Washington, DC. In recognition of Bellamy's career in athletic training, the school's annual Student Athletic Trainer and Manager of the Year Award is named in his honor.

Bellamy and his wife Sharon have two children-- son Chase, and daughter Ashley.

Masahiro TAKAHAGI
Assistant Athletic Trainer
Methodist University '08

4th Season at Temple

Masahiro "Hagi" Takahagi enters his fourth season with Temple University Sports Medicine staff. His primary responsibilities lie in the prevention, evaluation, treatment, and rehabilitation of injuries to the Owl football team.

Before arriving in Philadelphia, Takahagi served as a seasonal intern athletic trainer with the Washington Redskins during the 2011-12 NFL season.

Hailing from Fukushima, Japan, Takahagi is a 2008 graduate of Methodist University where he received a bachelor's degree in athletic training and sports management. The Dean's List student earned a master's degree in higher education with a concentration in sports management from Auburn University in 2011 while working as a graduate assistant athletic trainer with the 2010 BCS National Champion football team.

After graduating from Musashi University in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in business economics, Masahiro worked as an intern with the New Orleans Saints during pre-season camps in 2006, 2007, and 2008. He also had the opportunity to work in numerous athletic training settings such as: U-19 Japan Lacrosse Men's National Team (2003); U-19 Japan Football National Team (2007); Spring Training with the Texas Rangers (2007); the Orlando Predators of the AFL (2008); Louisiana Tech University Football (2008-09); and the USA Sevens Rugby Men's National Team (2009).

Takahagi is a certified athletic trainer and holds several other certifications: Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS), Certified Personal Trainer (NSCA-CPT), Performance Enhancement Specialist (NASM-PES), Corrective Exercise Specialist (NASM-CES), Certified Active Release Techniques (ART), Certified Kinesio Taping Practitioner (CKTP), and Certified Graston Techniques Practitioner. He is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association.

Temple '14

1st Season at Temple

Nathan Friedman is in his first season as a graduate assistant at Temple University. In that capacity he serves as the direct assistant to the video coordinator during in-game workflow. In addition, Friedman assists the video staff in producing motivational videos for the team and university.

Friedman spent the past four years as a student assistant for video at Temple where he filmed and edited practices and games.

The Longmeadow, MA, native graduated from Longmeadow High School in 2010, where he played baseball and assisted the school's athletic trainer.

Friedman received his degree in kinesiology from Temple in 2014. He is pursuing a master's degree in sports psychology.

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS / EQUIPMENT

Sean PADDEN

Director of Football Operations
Catholic University '97

2nd Season at Temple

Sean Padden enters his second season as Temple's Director of Football Operations.

Padden returned to collegiate football after an eight-year stint in the corporate world. He served as the defensive line coach at Monsignor Bonner High School during the 2012 season. He was a volunteer coach for the West Philly Tarheels youth football team for three seasons (2008-10).

Padden served as the defensive line coach and travel coordinator at Fordham University during the 2002-03 seasons working with Ed Foley who was the Rams' offensive coordinator and offensive line coach.

Padden joined the Columbia University staff as the outside linebackers coach for two seasons (2001-02) prior to heading to Fordham.

Padden began his coaching career at Albright College where he coached the defensive line for two seasons (1997-98), working with Matt Rhule who coached the linebackers in 1998. Padden moved to the University of Albany as the defensive tackles coach for one season before taking over as wide receivers coach for one season.

A three-year letterwinner on special teams for the Catholic University Cardinals, Padden won the Scout Team Player of the Year Award as a junior in 1995. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in accounting in 1997.

A Norristown, PA, native, Padden earned a master's degree in higher education administration from Albany in 2005.

Dominique HARRIS

Graduate Asst. Football Operations
Temple '09

2nd Season at Temple

Dominique Harris begins his second season at Temple University as a graduate assistant, working with football operations.

The two-year Temple team captain was a four-year lettermen for the Owls. He played in every game of his collegiate career with 44 starts at safety. As a senior in 2009, Harris started all 14 games and helped the Owls to their first bowl appearance in 30 years—the EagleBank Bowl against UCLA.

A two-time All-Mid-American Conference honoree and Academic All-MAC selection, Harris was one of 12 finalists for the 2009 Wuerffel Trophy. He was named to the 2009 Philadelphia Inquirer Academic All-Area Football Team.

Additionally, Harris was the 2009 recipient of the Athletic Department's Temple Teammates Community Service Award, given to student-athletes who have demonstrated leadership qualities in the area of community service, inspiring others to engage in similar selfless civic endeavors for the purpose of improving the quality of life for those in the local community.

Harris received his degree in criminal justice from Temple in 2009. He is pursuing a master's degree in administrative and organizational development.

Following his final season, Harris played two years in the NFL, spending his rookie year with the Buffalo Bills before working with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In 2012, he played for the CFL's Hamilton Tiger-Cats, starting the last three games of the season.

Scott WALLACE

Coordinator of Internal Operations
California (PA) University '11

1st Season at Temple

Scott Wallace begins his first year as coordinator of internal operations for Temple University's football program

Wallace comes to Temple from the University of Delaware where he was the assistant to the director of football operations since March 2013. In that role, he had responsibilities in operations, recruiting, and travel & lodging. Wallace is credited with playing a major role in recruiting visits, maintaining a team and recruiting database, and implementing successful youth camps and a preseason training camp manual.

Prior to his time at Delaware, Wallace worked in the development department at California (PA) University from 2010-11. He also held roles with the minor league Washington Wild Things and served as an assistant high school basketball coach.

The Kennett Square, PA, native earned a B.S. degree in sports management from California (PA) University in 2011. Wallace was a defensive back and quarterback for the Vulcans from 2009-11, after beginning his collegiate career at University of Massachusetts.

Greg VALENZISI

ACADEMICS / SUPPORT

Justin MILLER

Director
Muhlenberg '01

5th Season at Temple

Justin Miller enters his fifth season on the Temple University Athletics staff as the Director of the Nancy & Donald Resnick Academic Support Center for Student-Athletes.

Miller is responsible for providing leadership for the Resnick Center staff, which consists of seven academic advisors, two learning specialists, three graduate externs, and over 80 tutors.

Reporting to the Office of the Senior Vice Provost for Undergraduate Studies, the mission of the Resnick Center is to provide superior academic, personal, and professional guidance to support all Temple University student-athletes. Through core values of diversity, integrity and collaboration across the University, the Center strives to inspire student-athletes to learn and succeed to their greatest academic and professional potential.

Under Miller's leadership, Temple's student-athletes earned their first academic year combined GPA over a 3.0 in 2012-13, highlighted by a 3.08 in the spring semester. Also in the spring, 61% of student-athletes earned individual GPAs of 3.0 or greater, including 28% over 3.5, both of which are the highest percentages on record.

Miller came to Temple from the University of South Florida, where he served as the Assistant Athletic Director for Academics & Student-Athlete Development since 2005. He was responsible for overseeing the academic support services for USF's student-athletes, as well as the day-to-day operations of the Academic Enrichment Center (AEC).

A native of Buffalo, NY, Miller attended Muhlenberg College in Allentown, PA. Upon completion of his undergraduate degree in 2001, he worked with the National Consortium for Academics and Sports in Orlando, FL, and subsequently enrolled in the DeVos Sport Business Management Program at the University of Central Florida.

While pursuing his master of business administration and master of sport business management degrees, Miller served as the Research Coordinator for the 2004-05 Racial Gender Report Card and worked with the National Football League's Players' Association in Washington, D.C. Miller has also worked with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, the Cleveland Cavaliers and Emmanuel College in Boston, MA.

Miller lives in Philadelphia with his wife Mary and son Wesley (2).

Andre JOHNSON

Academic Advisor for Football
Delaware '10

EVOLUTION OF THE HELMET

THE TEMPLE "T" ONCE AGAIN ADORNS THE FOOTBALL TEAM'S HELMETS, BEGINNING IN 2011. THE HELMET FEATURES A WHITE "T" AND A WHITE FACE MASK ON A CHERRY SHELL. THE HELMET IS STRIKINGLY SIMILAR TO THE ONE THE TEAM WORE FROM 1989-95 AND 2004-06, EXCEPT THERE IS NO LONGER A WHITE STRIPE DOWN THE MIDDLE. THE TRUE SHADE OF THE "TEMPLE CHERRY RED" COLOR WAS ADOPTED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF ATHLETICS IN 1996.

FOR 30 STRAIGHT SEASONS, FROM 1966 TO 1995, THE OWLS' HELMETS CONSISTED OF CHERRY SHELLS. TEMPLE SWITCHED TO A WHITE SHELL IN 1996, SPORTING A HELMET ADORNED WITH THE FLYING "DOMINANT OWL" LOGO AND FEATURING A BLACK FACE MASK. THE PROGRAM HAS WORN HELMETS FEATURING BOTH WHITE AND CHERRY SHELLS WITH VARIOUS STRIPES, LETTERING, FACE MASKS AND LOGOS SINCE ITS INAUGURAL SEASON IN 1894.

The Temple football team boasts the ability to go an entire season without wearing the same uniform. With two different helmet colors, three jerseys and three sets of pants, the Owls can don their Cherry and White colors in at least 18 combinations. That doesn't even take into account three different helmet stickers and various sock patterns, virtually allowing the Owls to wear something new and fresh each game.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

Neil D. Theobald is Temple's 10th president. He began his tenure at Temple on January 1, 2013 and was formally invested as Temple's 10th president on Oct. 18, 2013.

In naming Theobald to this role, Temple Board of Trustees Chairman Patrick J. O'Connor cited his extensive record of accomplishment as a university administrator and faculty member: "Dr. Theobald is a gifted teacher and dedicated researcher. In addition, he has a deep and practical understanding of the changing dynamics of higher education. He wants to ensure that students have access to an education that is first-class and affordable. I can't think of a better set of values to bring to the Temple presidency."

Theobald was named Indiana University's senior vice president in 2007. Previously, he had served as the senior vice provost at the University's flagship campus in Bloomington and as special assistant to IU's president. Major accomplishments during more than a decade as a senior administrator at Indiana University include increasing the mean SAT score of the incoming class at IU Bloomington from 1096 to 1203, directing a $1.1 billion capital campaign, and boosting IU's credit ranking to Moody's highest level (Aaa).

In addition to his administrative responsibilities, Theobald holds a professorship in education finance. His research interests in the appropriate role of decentralization in educational financing and in modeling educational labor markets are reflected in more than $1.5 million in funded research, numerous books and book chapters, dozens of articles published in professional journals, and nearly 50 policy reports for state governments across the United States.

At Indiana University, Dr. Theobald directed a research center that assisted state governments in Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Iowa, and Washington in devising education funding processes that equitably facilitated academic excellence. In addition, Theobald was a three-time winner of IU's Teaching Excellence Recognition Award.

Theobald is a past-president of the American Education Finance Association, winning the association's Jean Flanigan Award for the outstanding dissertation in the study of educational finance in 1990. In 1995, the University Council for Educational Administration presented Theobald with the Jack A. Culbertson Award as the professor who, in the first seven years of his or her career, made the most outstanding contribution to the profession. In 2003, Theobald was presented the Distinguished Graduate Award by the College of Education at the University of Washington.

A native of Peoria, Ill., Theobald had planned to enter an electrician's apprenticeship after high school. However, donors to Trinity College in Connecticut made it possible for him to attend college and Theobald earned a bachelor's degree in 1978. After a short stint in the corporate world, Theobald began his education career as a secondary school mathematics teacher in the State of Washington, where he also coached baseball. He subsequently served as both an assistant professor and an associate professor at the University of Washington, where he earned a doctoral degree in educational finance in 1988.

Dr. Theobald and his wife, Sheona Mackenzie, have three children: Roddy, Kinnear, and Mattie.

TEMPLE ATHLETICS

Kevin CLARK

Vice President / Director of Athletics
Grambling State '86

2nd Year at Temple

Kevin Clark, who arrived at Temple in November 2012 in the role of Senior Advisor to the President, served as the University's Interim Director of Athletics from May 3 through October 31 before being appointed Vice President and Director of Athletics by President Neil D. Theobald on November 1, 2013.

A veteran athletic administrator, Clark came to Temple after serving the previous 11 years on Indiana University's senior athletic staff, the last two in the role of Senior Associate Athletic Director of Internal Operations.

As Senior Associate Athletic Director of Internal Operations, Clark was responsible for overseeing the department's athletics business office, information technology, human resources, travel services, athletic facilities, IU Golf Course, equipment operations, concessions and food services, and other areas of internal administration. He served as a member of the senior administrative staff and, in this capacity, worked with other senior administrators to advise, develop and implement departmental policies and strategies including yearly and long-term strategic plans.

Additionally, Clark also served as the sport administrator for football, baseball and women's basketball.

In his first nine years at IU, Clark served as the Associate Athletic Director for Finance/CFO. In that role, he managed the athletic financial business office and was instrumental in the development and administration of the department's budget.

At Saint Louis University, Clark served as the Director of Business Administration-Student Development from 2000-2001. Prior to that role, Clark was the Assistant Athletic Director of Business and Finance from 1996-2000. He prepared and administered budgets ranging from $10-$30 million. While at Saint Louis University he established the first-ever athletic department contingency fund.

Prior to his tenure at Saint Louis University, Clark served as a staff accountant at the NCAA from 1991-1996. There he assisted with the preparation and management of a $30 million operating budget.

Clark earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from Grambling State University and later earned an MBA from Webster University.

The Kansas City, Mo., native retired as a Major after serving 23 years in the United States Army Reserve. He and his wife, Kendra, have four children, Kevin Jr., Michael, Ellicia and Logan.

Dr. Patrick KRAFT

Deputy Director of Athletics
Indiana '00

2nd Year at Temple

Dr. Patrick Kraft, who served on the senior athletic staffs at Indiana University and Loyola University Chicago, was named Deputy Director of Athletics at Temple in May, 2013.

Kraft spent the past two years as the Executive Senior Associate Athletics Director at Loyola University Chicago. At Loyola, he had direct oversight of all aspects of the department's external operations, including the marketing, ticketing, media relations and fundraising components. Kraft played an integral role in Loyola's move from the Horizon League to the Missouri Valley Conference.

In his two years at the school he was able to grow the men's basketball season ticket base by 30 percent with an overall increase of 51 percent in ticket revenue. Additionally, he generated an increase of 400 percent in cash sponsorship to the department while also growing the department's annual giving by 75 percent.

Not limited to just external operations at Loyola, Kraft was responsible for overseeing the day-to-day management of the department's $12+ million budget. He also served as the sport supervisor for men's and women's basketball and was responsible for handling all of the department's business contracts.

At Indiana, Kraft was responsible for the branding and marketing efforts for all of the Hoosiers' programs. He oversaw game production for all of IU's varsity sports and coordinated group, season and single-game ticket sales for football, men's basketball, men's soccer, women's basketball and women's volleyball. In addition, Kraft managed the promotion, marketing, brand enhancement and enforcement of the school's Adidas contract and the Big Ten Network partnership as well as the Learfield Sport Properties multi-media rights agreement with the Hoosiers.

His efforts at Indiana helped increase home football attendance to its highest mark in 17 years, with it also being the third largest football attendance increase among all Division I schools. He also instituted a strategy that saw a 20 percent increase in student ticket sales and the overall highest season ticket base in 13 years.

The Libertyville, Ill., native began his career in 2001 as the corporate sponsorship and promotions coordinator with the Arena Football League. He then spent three years as the business development director with United States Synchronized Swimming (2001-04). He then served four years in higher education, the first three at Indiana (2005-08) as an associate instructor for sports marketing and management and the last as a clinical professor in the school of business administration at Loyola Chicago (2008-09).

Kraft, who played football as an undergraduate at Indiana, has three degrees from the University. He earned a bachelor's degree in sports marketing/management (2000), a master's degree in sports administration (2005) and a doctorate in sports management (2008).

Kraft resides in Cherry Hill, N.J., with his wife Betsy and daughter Annabelle.

MID WEEK

Interview Requests
All interview requests for players, coaches or staff members should be directed to the Athletic Communications staff.

Practice Regulations
Head coach Matt Rhule and select players will be available for brief interviews following daily practices early in the week. Advance notice is required to the Department of Athletic Communications. Photographers and videographers are permitted to shoot the last 15 minutes of practice. Otherwise, all practices are closed to all individuals except Temple football personnel.

Please make interview requests by Sunday evenings. Player interviews take place on Mondays, Tuesdays & Wednesdays during the season. The Owls practice on Chodoff Field at the Edberg-Olson Hall facility, located at 10th and Diamond Streets.

Weekly Football Release
To access Temple's weekly football release, please log on to www.OwlSports.com. The weekly release will include updated game notes, schedule, depth chart, and game-by-game wrap-ups. Team and individual statistics will be posted to the website as well.

Weekly Media Luncheon
Matt Rhule's weekly media luncheon is held each week at Edberg-Olson Hall on the main campus (10th & Diamond Streets, 2nd floor). Please check the weekly gamenotes for luncheon schedule.

GAME DAY

Credentials
All requests for home games must be made through Athletic Communications. Season credentials should be requested in the preseason and game-by-game credentials must be requested at least one week prior to the game. Local media requesting credentials for a road game must have that request into Athletic Communications two weeks prior to the contest (preceding Monday) by submitting in writing on company letterhead by e-mail (rich.burg@temple.edu).

Media Parking
Media parking at Lincoln Financial Field is available on a limited basis. Please contact Rich Burg in Athletic Communications at (215) 204-0876 for availability.

Media Will-Call / Entrance
Media attending games at Lincoln Financial Field must enter on the west side of the stadium (facing 11th St.) across from the Wells Fargo Center. Credentials left at will-call must be picked up at that entrance only.

Press Box Phone (267) 570-4453

Telephone Services
All seat locations and photographer work areas at Lincoln Financial Field have complimentary lines for high-speed Internet access as well as local and 800 telephone service. Wireless internet access is also available and pool phones will be accessible in the press box for outgoing calls. If you need more services, please contact Athletic Communications.

Statistics
Complete individual and team statistics and play-by-play will be distributed throughout the press box at the conclusion of each quarter.

Locker Room Policy
Temple maintains a closed locker room policy.

Post-Game Interview Procedures
Following games, head coaches and players from both teams are made available to the media. Please take the elevator to the street level and proceed across the lobby (to the right of the Touchdown Club). Follow the signs to the media conference rooms, located on the east side of the stadium. Each team will utilize an interview room adjacent to its respective locker room. Please address player requests to the Temple Athletic Communications staff and the visiting school's sports information representative by the 10-minute mark of the fourth quarter.

Taxi Cabs
For transportation to and from Lincoln Financial Field, it is suggested that you call either Checker Cab Co. at (215) 744-8294 or Olde City Taxi at (215) 338-0838.

On the Airwaves

Temple University will produce a radio broadcast of all football games. This season, the broadcast can be heard on 97.5 The Fanatic. The Fanatic, a Greater Media station powered by ESPN, is Philadelphia's first FM sports station and is home to the Philadelphia Flyers and Philadelphia 76ers. For additional information about The Fanatic and to listen online, log on to the station's website at:

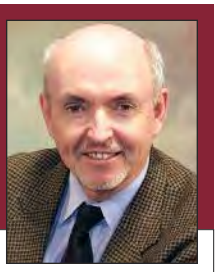
www.975thefanatic.com

On the Internet

For the latest info on Owl Football, log on to Temple Athletics' web site, www.Owl-Sports.com. In addition to live stats and audio of all games, fans can watch video of weekly press luncheons, head coach Matt Rhule's post-game press conferences, and the most up-to-date information on the Owls.

Harry DONAHUE

Radio Play-by-Play
St. Joseph's



20th Season at Temple

The 2014 season marks Harry Donahue's 20th consecutive year as the voice of Temple University football. A Philadelphia native, he has also served as play-by-play announcer for the Owls' men's basketball program since the 2002-03 campaign.

One of the most recognizable voices in the Delaware Valley, Donahue has worked as a morning news and sports anchor at KYW Newsradio (1060 AM) since 1979. He first joined the station in 1974 as a freelance reporter and anchor. Today, the Infinity Broadcasting radio station is the market leader, with more listeners than any other radio station in the Philadelphia region

Donahue is a well-known broadcaster and an integral part of the Philadelphia sports scene. He has done play-by-play for Eagles pre-season games, 76ers basketball contests and college basketball for ESPN's Atlantic 10 Conference Game of the Week. Every Sunday, NFL fans around the country hear Donahue describe NFL Films' highlights that are displayed on stadium scoreboards. He is the voice of NFL.com's weekly highlights. Donahue also hosted "Temple Sports Now," a bi-weekly TV show that featured Owl athletics.

Donahue was the play-by-play voice for the Philadelphia Stars of the USFL. He has also hosted "Center Court," the pre-game, half-time, and post-game shows for the 76ers' telecasts.

Donahue's reporting has earned him two Pennsylvania Associated Press Awards for his coverage of the Philadelphia Phillies' World Series run in 1980. In May 2000, he was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame.

Donahue is a graduate of Saint Joseph's University. He and his wife Lynda reside in Montgomery County, PA, and have three sons and five grandchildren.

Paul PALMER

Radio Color Analyst
Temple '87

2nd Season at Temple

In 2013, former Temple All-American running back Paul Palmer (1983-86) added the job of color analysis for the Temple Radio Network for all football game broadcasts to his list of accomplishments.

For Palmer it was a return to radio. He served as the Owls' sideline reporter for four seasons (2001-04). Palmer replaced 1974 Maxwell Award winner Steve Joachim, who had to step aside following 13 years as the color analyst for Temple Football due to increased work commitments with his full-time position.

A unanimous first-team All-American in 1986, his senior season, Palmer led the nation in rushing yards (1,866), rushing yards per game (169.6) and all-purpose yards (2,633) that season. Named 1986 ECAC Player of the Year, Palmer set 23 school records and remains the Owls' career leader in rushing attempts (935), rushing yards (4,895), 100-yard rushing games (21), and 200-yard rushing games (6).

Palmer finished second in the 1986 Heisman Trophy race to Miami QB Vinny Testaverde. In 2014, he was on the ballot for the College Football Hall of Fame.

A native of Potomac, MD, Palmer was a first round draft pick by the Kansas City Chiefs where he led the AFC in kickoff return average (24.3 yards per attempt) as a rookie and rushed for 607 yards in two seasons.

Palmer, who resides in Lawnside, NJ, has served as an assistant football coach at Haddon Heights High School for the last seven seasons.

MATT RHULE FOOTBALL CAMP

The Matt Rhule Football Camp, LLC, will kickoff the 2014 summer camp circuit for a second consecutive season on the campus of Temple University.

Edberg-Olson Hall, the Owls' training facility, will serve as the central location of all camp activities. The camp objective is to teach the basic fundamentals and skills of the game of football. The Temple coaching staff will be assisted by coaches from major universities and colleges and also premier high school coaches from the Northeast. Though the backgrounds of these coaches differ, they all share one common trait; the love of football. The opportunity to work with some of the best teachers that this great game has to offer will give you the best value at under $60 per session) of any camp you will attend this summer!

Visit us on the web at www.CoachRhule.com for more information or contact the football office at 215-204-4694 or via e-mail at football@temple.edu.

ATHLETIC FACILITIES

Lincoln Financial Field

On August 13, 2003, the Philadelphia Eagles and Temple University announced a 15-year pact for the Owls to play their home football games at Lincoln Financial Field. An average of 24,137 fans per game witnessed the Cherry & White in its inaugural season at the venue, a 21 percent increase from the prior year's average.

Lincoln Financial Field, familiarly known as The Linc, is the home stadium of the National Football League's Philadelphia Eagles. It has a seating capacity of 68,532 (69,032 with Standing Room Only tickets). The stadium was named in June 2002 when the Lincoln Financial Group paid $139.6 million for naming rights over the next 21 years. It is located in South Philadelphia on Pattison Avenue between 11th and 10th Streets, closer to the area's stretch of Interstate 95 than to Pattison.

In 2011, the stadium became powered with a combination of onsite wind, solar, and dual-fuel generated electricity, making it the world's first major sports stadium to convert to self-generated renewable energy. Approximately $25 million was invested to build the system, saving the Eagles an estimated $60 million in energy costs.

Edberg-Olson Hall

Edberg-Olson Hall is the home of the Temple University football program. Officially dedicated on December 9, 2000, the facility was designed by AP3C Architects of Philadelphia. The building was engineered to not only support the football team's functional requirements, but to enhance the experience through innovative design concepts.

During the season, approximately 250 people will pass through its doors on a daily basis. In 2012, Edberg-Olson Hall underwent a $10 million upgrade with a 15,000-square-foot expansion. The original 23,600-square-foot building contains team and coaches locker rooms, a training room, equipment facilities, coach's offices, a players' lounge, individual position meeting rooms, and a theater-style team meeting room. Opened in July 2012, the upgrade has a strength and conditioning area that expanded from 2,500 square feet to 10,000 square feet. The expansion also features an enlarged sports medicine office with hydrotherapy, a full-service academic support area, and a 3,500-square-foot team function room. An observation balcony runs the length of the building. It is the perfect complement to a gridiron landscape outside featuring over 100,000 square feet of Sprinturf and 24,000 square feet of Astroturf. Eight, 85-foot poles providing 85 candles of white rendition light line the perimeter of the complex. Powder-coated cyclone fences provide privacy.

The Pavilion

The Pavilion Athletic Facility, which is utilized by football, field hockey, women's lacrosse, baseball, softball, men's and women's soccer, is a 32,000-square foot multi-purpose field. The facility, which is available as an auxiliary training site for the remainder of Temple's 24 varsity athletic programs, features Field Turf XT57, an ideal surface for Temple's varsity teams to train on.

POSTSEASON AWARDS

All-American Athletic Conference First and Second Teams, Players of the Year on offense, defense and special teams, Rookie of the Year and Coach of the Year are selected by a vote of the league's 11 head coaches at the conclusion of the regular season. The awards will be announced in Dec. 2014. The American All-Academic Team is comprised of players who have an overall grade-point average of 3.00 or better over the past academic year and completed at least two semesters of academic work. The team is announced in early February. The American Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year was established to recognize student-athletes who have achieved success in the classroom and on the field. The winner receives a scholarship which may be applied to graduate or professional studies.

WEEKLY AWARDS

The American names offensive, defensive and special teams Players of the Week each Monday morning during the season. Winners are chosen from nominations provided by the conference school's sports information directors.

POSTSEASON BOWL INFORMATION

Beginning this season, the College Football Playoff is the system that will determine a national champion for the NCAA Division I Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS). Under the playoff, four teams play in two semifinal games, with the winners advancing to the new College Football Championship Game. Six bowl games — the Rose Bowl, Sugar Bowl, Orange Bowl, Cotton Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, and Peach Bowl — rotate as hosts for the semifinal games. The rotation is set on a three-year cycle with the following pairings: Rose/Sugar, Orange/Cotton, and Fiesta/Peach. The two semifinals plus the other four top-tier bowls are now billed as the "New Year's Six", with three bowls played on New Year's Eve and three on New Year's Day.

Earlier this year, the American Athletic Conference's announced bowl affiliations for a six-year cycle that spans the 2014 through 2019 football seasons.

In addition to the College Football Playoff and Host Bowls, the American will have either a primary or secondary affiliation with 12 bowl games, with a minimum of six or seven selections each year.

Under the new postseason structure that will be in place for the 2014 season, American Athletic Conference teams would have the opportunity to participate in the four-team College Football Playoff if chosen by the CFP Selection Committee.

If the American champion finishes as the highest-ranked team among the champions of Conference USA, the Mountain West Conference, the Mid-American Conference and the Sun Belt Conference, but does not qualify for the College Football Playoff, then it would participate in one of the three Host Bowls that will comprise part of the CFP rotation – the Cotton Bowl, the Chick-fil-A Bowl or the Fiesta Bowl.

The Birmingham Bowl takes place at Legion Field in Birmingham, AL, in one of the most passionate college football communities in the nation, evidenced by last year's record crowd of 55,099.

The Bitcoin St. Petersburg Bowl St. Petersburg is played at Tropicana Field in St. Petersburg, FL.

The Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl is played at Amon G. Carter Stadium on the campus of Texas Christian University and has been played in front of crowds of 40,000 or more in four of the last six years.

The Sheraton Hawaii Bowl will be played on Hawaiian Airlines Field at Aloha Stadium on the campus of the University of Hawaii. The bowl has featured crowds of at least 30,000 in each of the last six years.

The Miami Beach Bowl will be played for the first time in 2014 at state-of-the-art Marlins Park in Miami, which sits on the site of the historic Orange Bowl stadium.

The Military Bowl presented by Northrop Grumman will take place at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium in Annapolis, MD, while the events and activities surrounding the game will be based in Washington, D.C.

The Bahamas Bowl will be played in at Thomas A. Robinson Stadium in Nassau, Bahamas.

The Boca Raton Bowl will be a pre-Christmas game that will feature an American Athletic Conference team three times during the six-year cycle at FAU Stadium in Boca Raton, FL.

The R&L Carriers New Orleans Bowl is held at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in New Orleans and has drawn more than 40,000 spectators in each of the last two years.

In addition to the conference's primary bowl affiliations, The American holds secondary partnerships with the AutoZone Liberty Bowl in Memphis, TN, the AdvoCare V100 Bowl in Shreveport, LA, and the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl in San Diego.

TEMPLE FIGHT SONG

T FOR TEMPLE U
UN-I-VER-SITY!
FIGHT! FIGHT! FIGHT!
FOR THE CHERRY AND THE WHITE;
FOR THE CHERRY AND THE WHITE
WE'LL FIGHT, FIGHT, FIGHT!

(REPEAT)

"FIGHT! TEMPLE FIGHT!"

FIGHT! TEMPLE, FIGHT ON!
FIGHT WITH ALL YOUR MIGHT!
FIGHT FOR THE CHERRY AND WHITE,
KEEP OUR COLORS HIGH!
ROLL THAT BALL AND HIT THE LINE,
ALL THE TEMPLE STARS WILL SHINE,
SKILL AND COURAGE WIN THE GAME
FIGHT ON, TEMPLE, FIGHT!
